

Authorized Biography: Dianna Love

Dianna Love started writing high-action suspense while working over a hundred feet in the air creating spectacular marketing projects for Fortune 500 companies (www.ArtProductionsInc.com). Her first book (written as Dianna Love Snell) won the prestigious RITA award. Her next release will be PHANTOM IN THE NIGHT (Pocket/June 2008), a romantic-adventure collaboration with #1 NYT Best Seller Sherrilyn Kenyon. Later in 2008, Dianna's debut paranormal novella – MIDNIGHT KISS GOODBYE – will be released in December 2008 by St. Martin's Press. There are no vampires or werewolves in this fast-paced paranormal laced with fantasy elements. When not plotting out her latest dark and edgy suspense, she travels the country on a motorcycle to research new locations and loves to visit with readers everywhere.

Dianna is a national speaker who has given international workshops as well to standing-room only attendance. For information on the highly successful Plot YOUR Book in 2 Days Retreat she developed with Mary Buckham visit www.breakintofiction.com. Stop by www.AuthorDiannaLove.com for more on Dianna's fiction work, which includes three more releases in 2009 and the nonfiction book she's co-written with Mary due out next year. Dianna lives in the Atlanta, GA area with her wonderful husband and a tank of unruly saltwater fish named after celebrities. Contact her at Dianna@AuthorDiannaLove.com